

SS&C Intralinks for Legal Collaboration

Technology, security, services and support for law firms, legal departments and legal operations

Legal professionals around the world have come to know Intralinks virtual data rooms (VDRs) while working on capital markets transactions and other high-value, high-stakes deals. As a result of facilitating more than $34 trillion worth of strategic transactions over the last 25+ years, Intralinks has been used by 125,000 lawyers globally and 90% of the AmLaw Global 100.

As the pioneer and leader in VDRs and secure file sharing, Intralinks is aware of the myriad of challenges and requirements facing the legal industry: confidentiality, productivity and regulatory compliance — just to name a few. Intralinks offers superior technology solutions and value-added services to law firms and legal departments to help them work faster, smarter and more securely.

“[The] platform assists with efficient collaboration by removing the need for using several different communication tools ... and we see this kind of technology becoming part of the standardized process for large law firms to increase productivity.”

– Associate, top-10 global law firm

VALUE-ADDED DEAL SERVICES

Leave the repetitive, labor-intensive tasks to Intralinks. We'll take care of chasing documents, redactions, organizing VDRs, drafting and coordinating NDAs, translations and more.

HIGHEST STANDARDS OF DATA PRIVACY

As the first VDR to achieve ISO 27701 certification, Intralinks meets the highest standards of responsibility and transparency in processing and handling sensitive information.

UNCOMPROMISED SECURITY

Rely on multiple layers of system security: two-factor authentication, SS0, DDoS protection, encryption-at-rest and in-transit; watermarking and information rights management (IRM) further protect content.

VDRPro™ FOR DUE DILIGENCE

Our best-in-class VDR for due diligence has been upgraded for the legal community — with workflow tools, video integration, Q&A, AI-powered redaction, archives on-demand and more.

AWARD-WINNING CUSTOMER SERVICE

A dedicated customer service manager (CSM) is available from VDR setup through deal closing. Global, 24/7 support in 140+ languages, now including live chat.

COMPREHENSIVE USER MONITORING

Full audit trails of user activity and document access are always available and up to date.
