SS&C Intralinks Deal Services

Focus time and expertise on high-value work. Not on tedious translations.

Translating documents — whether related to due diligence or for ongoing operational needs — can be extremely expensive and resource- and time-consuming. There's no room for error or cutting corners when hundreds of thousands of pages and cross-border decision-makers are involved.

Enter Intralinks Deal Services. Our team manages the entire process — from collecting, centralizing and securing documents for translation to applying machine language translation, reviewing, proofreading and finalizing with linguistic certification. Our translation service is comprehensive, thorough, extremely secure and a cost-effective alternative to expensive outsourced translation providers.

Let Intralinks do the work. Benefit from:
